Witness/Complainant Statement

I, Nithin P., aged 27 years, state that on 13 September 2026 at approximately 4:10 p.m., I contacted an unknown seller through a fictional online marketplace regarding a used laptop.

The seller sent photographs and represented that the laptop was available for immediate delivery. The seller then requested an advance payment of ₹8,500 through a digital payment application.

After I made the payment, the seller stated that an additional delivery charge was required. I declined to make any further payment and asked for a refund.

The seller stopped responding, and the listing was later unavailable. I have retained the transaction reference, chat screenshots, and profile details for examination.

I understand that the identity of the account holder has not been verified. I provide this statement voluntarily and request that the transaction be recorded for appropriate inquiry.
